What is SASSE?

SASSE is the Student Association at the Stockholm School of Economics. We are the provider of student life at SSE, so in other words the provider of fun! We host countless of activities each week, spanning from parties and banquets, to sports practices and career fairs.

SASSE is a non-political, non-religious organization that has about 2,000 members. About 95% of students are active in SASSE during their time at SSE. For some, it's working at one party, for others it's taking on roles which requires much time and energy. Regardless, SASSE is a way for students to meet, learn and have fun. After all, the mission of SASSE is to promote good camaraderie among students, and that is what we strive for in all we do.

No matter who you are, where you are from or what your interests are you are welcome in SASSE. We have activities that suit most, and if you feel like something is missing you are more than welcome to start your own initiative! Almost no roles have any previous requirements to them, whether its experience or knowledge of language. We always aim for every SSE student to feel welcome and included!

What do SASSE offer?

Student life

As mentioned, SASSE is the provider of fun at SSE and every year we host many parties and events. From small pub nights, to formal banquets and large parties with 2,000 guests - SASSE will make sure your time at SSE is filled with many unforgettable nights.

Business contact

Another aspect of SASSE is the great relationship we have with the business world. Each week students have the possibility to meet company representatives at for example lunch lectures or company fairs.

Educational support

Being a student can at times be stressful, and SASSE is there for all students during their time at SSE. We provide both educational monitoring and tutor sessions prior to exams to make your studies as smooth as possible.

A SASSE timeline

What does a typical year for a SSE student look like? Lets have a look.

Introduction Weeks

Your first weeks at SSE are filled with fun activities in order for you to get to know your classmates and feel at home at SSE!

Gasque

Celebrate your first exam period together with your classmates in one of the most glamorous banquets of the year.

Handelsdagarna

The biggest career fair of the year! A week filled with inspiring lectures, a large fair and tons of opportunities to meet interesting companies!

Summer party

End the year with the most spectacular party of the year, before getting some well deserved rest during the summer.

Women's Finance Days

The first career fair after summer where you will meet many companies in the finance sector.

Sports tournament

Germany, Poland, or Barcelona? Join the sports teams in basketball, soccer or cheerleading and represent SSE & SASSE in an international tournament!

Handelsspexet

Each spring Handelsspexet (the Student Farce) takes the stage and performs a show worth remembering!
