

The Stockholm School of Economics (SSE) is one of Europe's leading business schools. We have been ranked as the no.1 business school in the Nordic countries nine years in a row by the Financial Times.

MSC PROGRAM IN BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT

2 YEARS, 120 ECTS

Do you have a strong interest in business creation and a passion for development? These qualities are needed in business environments characterized by constant, rapid and turbulent change. Organizations of all kinds, regardless of age, size, or industry, need to continuously identify and pursue new opportunities for value creation.

The Master of Science Program in Business & Management will develop the managerial knowledge and skills needed to excel in today's organizations, to act and to make decisions in highly uncertain and complex environments. These contexts not only include innovative marketing campaigns, new product development processes, and dynamic strategies for entrepreneurial ventures but also transformation initiatives for leading organizations striving to maintain their edge through ongoing renewal.

The core curriculum of the program builds on the academic disciplines of management and marketing. These disciplines offer vital tools for next-generation managers who need to combine creativity and innovative thinking with market analyses and communication strategies, to manage projects and drive change within and across organizations, and to integrate knowledge from different fields and social networks. Studying Business and Management at SSE will open up exceptional career opportunities. Be it as a manager, consultant or entrepreneur, you will enhance your potential to take leading roles in blue chip companies or high-growth ventures.
