

CALL FOR PAPERS

THE PLAYING FIELD IN ACADEMIA: WHY ARE WOMEN STILL UNDERREPRESENTED?

Warsaw, 21-22 June 2023

INVITED LECTURES:

prof. Carlo Schwarz (Bocconi University)

prof. Sarah Smith (University of Bristol)

Women continue to be underrepresented in every stage of the academic career in many fields and they do not advance professionally at the same rate as men. A growing body of research in economics points towards social and institutional causes behind these inequalities and offers policy suggestions to address them. To discuss and disseminate recent developments in this area the FREE Network invites academic papers to a conference entitled:

THE PLAYING FIELD IN ACADEMIA: WHY ARE WOMEN STILL UNDERREPRESENTED?

The Conference is organised as part of the Forum for Research on Gender Economics \(FROGEE\) supported by the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency \(Sida\). It will combine contributed sessions, invited lectures and policy discussions.

We invite either full papers (early versions are welcome) or extended abstracts. Authors will have approximately 30 minutes for their presentations. There is no conference fee but participants are expected to cover their own travel and accommodation costs.

Online submission is open via site@hhs.se, please in the subject box type:
“Submission: The playing field in academia”

The deadline for submissions is 17 April 2023. Notifications are expected by 30 April 2023.
