

The Stockholm School of Economics (SSE) is one of Europe's leading business schools. We have been ranked as the no.1 business school in the Nordic countries nine years in a row by the Financial Times.

MSC PROGRAM IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS (INCL. CEMS MIM) 2 YEARS, 120 ECTS

Do you love meeting new people and cultures, leading and collaborating, inspiring and being inspired by talented professionals from different backgrounds? Welcome to our Master of Science program in International Business!

The MSc in International Business (CEMS MIM) provides you with the tools to master the challenges of management and strategy in global organizations. The program combines advanced analytical training with active learning in real projects together with SSE and CEMS corporate partners.

You will work on an advanced level with topics focused on running and developing global organizations. We use strategy and marketing tools to put the firm in context and explore how firms influence their competitive environments. You also learn how to make firms grow and prosper from the inside, through innovations and management practices that build operational excellence. Ultimately, you will learn how to improve them and the things they do.

Upon fulfilling the graduation requirements of SSE and CEMS, you will be awarded both a Master of Science degree from SSE and a Master degree in International Management from CEMS, the prestigious global alliance in management education.
