

MSc ACCOUNTING, VALUATION & FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

The Stockholm School of Economics (SSE) is one of Europe's leading business schools. We have been ranked as the no.1 business school in the Nordic countries over ten years in a row by the Financial Times.

MSC PROGRAM IN ACCOUNTING, VALUATION & FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT 2 YEARS, 120 ECTS

The Master of Science Program in Accounting, Valuation & Financial Management provides comprehensive foundations in accounting and advanced knowledge in corporate valuation, financial management and management control. What distinguishes our program is the following:

Exceptional student experience. It is a highly selective program that offers outstanding students a close and creative learning environment.

Broad range of key topics. Our students develop the crucial skills required to manage accounting information in different situations. They will be able to evaluate (non-) financial performance and understand how to integrate controls to manage various types of companies from different industries.

Faculty at the research frontier. Our faculty consists of internationally renowned experts who are deeply engaged in developing students' skills to ensure their success in today's business environment.

Close connections to the business community. Frequent guest lectures by top managers and exciting field trips allow students to delve into real-life strategic challenges while building strong professional networks.

Excellent career opportunities. The program prepares students for outstanding careers as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), management consultant, investment banker, business controller, or auditor. Our students receive job offers from leading international companies typically before graduating.
