

MSc ECONOMICS

The Stockholm School of Economics (SSE) is one of Europe’s leading business schools. We have been ranked as the no.1 business school in the Nordic region for two decades by the Financial Times. SSE offers programs of the highest international standards, including Bachelor, Master, PhD, MBA and Executive Education programs. The School also conducts world-class research. Our programs are developed in close cooperation with the research and business communities, which give our graduates great potential to attain leading positions in companies and other organizations. SSE is accredited by EQUIS, certifying that all of the main activities – teaching as well as research – are of the highest international standards. SSE is also the only Swedish member institution of CEMS, PIM, GNAM and CIVICA, which are collaborations between top business schools worldwide, contributing to the high quality SSE is known for.

MSc PROGRAM IN ECONOMICS

2 YEARS | 120 ECTS

SSE has a century-long tradition of academic excellence, practical education for business and economics, with a global perspective and with strong connections to the public and private sector in Sweden and beyond. The faculty teaching in the MSc program in Economics include leading experts with worldwide recognition.

The Master of Science program in Economics will equip you to address challenging economic problems and provide you with excellent tools and problem-solving skills that can be applied in a wide variety of settings and offers an invaluable start to your career. The program is best suited to students with a strong undergraduate background in economics and excellent analytical ability.

During the first semester, the focus is on the theory and empirical methods of economics. The courses are designed to provide students with a thorough understanding of state-of-the-art models and techniques used in economic analysis. In the second semester, focus shifts to applications and extensions. This part builds on the skills acquired during the first semester and broadens and deepens your knowledge of economics. The second year of the program is devoted to taking more courses (30 ECTS) and writing the Master thesis (30 ECTS). You can either continue taking courses in economics, or you choose courses from any other Master program at SSE. Additionally, you have the possibility to apply for a semester abroad at one of our partner universities or work as trainee at one of our corporate partners which are involved in the Executive Trainee Module (XTM). MSc in Economics students also have the opportunity to choose the Data Analytics Track or the Sustainability Track in the second year. The Master program in Economics additionally offers exciting double degree programs with the University of St. Gallen (Switzerland), Sciences Po in Paris (France) and CEMS.

“When choosing a Master’s program in Economics, I sought a program that would provide a strong academic foundation while also allowing flexibility to explore my interests within Economics and related fields. The program at SSE offered the best of both worlds. In the first year, it built a solid foundation, and in the second year, it offers substantial flexibility to explore courses in different fields or gain practical experience, all within the inspiring environment of an exceptional class and faculty in the amazing city of Stockholm.”
