

A note on SHoF's Women-in-Finance data 2022

We have collected data from websites of the global top 100 and European top 50 research institutions according to the UT Dallas Business School Ranking based on publications in the JF, JFE, and RFS in 2018–2020. The data is from November 2022 and includes 132 institutions (155 sub-entities and 235 URLs) from 20 countries and covers 5,687 researchers, see Table 1. The table also shows that female representation varies across countries, ranging from 40.0 percent in Portugal to zero percent in Cyprus. It is also noteworthy that American researchers make up about half of the sample.

More institutions present PhD students (and RAs) on their websites in 2022 compared to 2021. Hence, the seniority of the typical researcher is lower in the 2022 sample than in 2021, which, in turn, affects the aggregate statistics for female representation. In total, female researchers make up 22.0 percent in 2022 compared to 20.3 percent in 2021, an increase of 1.7 percentage points. However, for tenure-track positions, the corresponding figures are 19.1 and 18.7 percent, respectively, and the increase is only 0.4 percentage points, see Table 3.

Table 1. Summary statistics for the 20 countries in the sample.

All 5,687 researchers are sorted into one of the following hierarchical levels: (1) Professor, (2) Associate Professor, (3) Assistant Professor, (4) Lecturer, (5) Research Fellow, and (6) Research Associate. Many institutions and countries have their own non-standard terminology to name the positions of their researchers, oftentimes with multiple terms for the same hierarchical level. We use a text mining tool to extract the hierarchical level from the information available on the institutions' websites, see Table 2 for examples.

Table 2. Illustration of the hierarchical taxonomy

Position	Examples
1) Professor	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (Full) Professor • Head of Department • Chair in ...
2) Associate Professor	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Associate Professor • Reader (United Kingdom) • “Außerordentlicher Universitätsprofessor” (Austria) • Senior Lecturer (Dept of Accounting and Finance, Management School, Lancaster University, United Kingdom)
3) Assistant Professor	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assistant Professor • Senior Lecturer (Australia) • Lecturer (Dept of Banking and Finance, Monash Business School, Monash University, Australia) • Lecturer (Dept of Accounting and Finance, Management School, Lancaster University, United Kingdom) • “Universitetslektor” (Sweden)
4) Lecturer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lecturer • Teaching Fellow • Teaching Professor (United States)
5) Research Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research Fellow • Postdoctoral Researcher • Clinical Faculty • Adjunct Faculty • Visiting Faculty • Emeritus Faculty • Affiliate Faculty • Professor of Practice • Guest Researcher • Honorary Faculty
6) Research Associate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research Associate • PhD Student/Candidate • Doctoral Student/Candidate • PhD Fellow • Research Student • Research Assistant • Graduate Student • “Doktorand” (Germany, Austria)

Table 3 shows that there are fewer women in senior positions, such as professors (13.0%), compared to junior positions, such as assistant professors (27.2%) and research associates (32.5%). The latter group includes PhD students. Table 4 presents the number of researchers at different hierarchical levels for each of the 20 countries.
